

Not just a book.

Books are powerful things. They can make you laugh out loud on a crowded train or send shivers down your spine as you sneakily read by torchlight. They can remind you of the times that you first read them or the people that read them to you. There are all sorts of reasons why books aren't just books...

This is the book that reminds me of my Gramps.

This is the book that I wish I'd never read.

This is the book that is about one of my heroes.

This is the book that made my brain hurt.

Record some of the books that aren't just a book to you in the spaces below.

The only rules are that you must begin each one with the words "This is the book that..." and you must explain why you have chosen it.
